

Camden Abu Dis Friendship Association

May 2009

Charity no 1112717

Dear Camden schools,

Abu Dis children working with a Camden teacher October 07

We are a local human-rights charity with good links to schools in both Camden and Abu Dis, a small Palestinian town in the Jerusalem suburb. We are happy to provide more information about our organisation and activities – contact@camdenabudis.net

We can offer your school

- Speakers on Palestine, on human rights, on dealing with controversial issues in the classroom
 - Support in linking/ twinning with a school in Abu Dis, Palestine, and up-to-date information on the situation there
 - Exhibitions of photos & Palestinian handcrafts
- Resources on our website www.camdenabudis.net
 - Our books “Voices from Abu Dis” (a resource book with people’s own stories, maps, history etc) and “The First Six Days” (oral history from 1967)
 - Visitors from Abu Dis and Palestine. Recent visitors have included teachers, women, musicians. Our next visit will be the fourth group of Abu Dis children: in June 2009
 - Fact-finding visits to Abu Dis and Palestine ... Contact us for further information

We would like to invite you to some special events

- Tuesday 16th June – Opening of exhibition of photographs from the Camden teachers’ visit to Abu Dis, April 2009
- Friday 19th June – Refugee Week Concert, compere Ivor Dembina, with Lowkey MC, Saddaqa Trio, Velvet Glove, Palestinian children’s drama group and others at South Camden Community School – 6pm food, 7pm performance
- Saturday 20th June (for your students) – Human Riotous Arts Workshop at SOAS 10 am to 4 pm
