FOR MARYAM

Saturday 27th September 2008

We are here to remember

Maryam Ayyad,
who was killed in her own house
during an Israeli army raid in Abu Dis a week ago*.

Today we want to express sympathy with the family and call for an end to the violence of the Israeli occupation.

*There is more information on www.camdenabudis.net

On Wednesday,
29th October at 7pm for 7.30,
(the fortieth day after her death)
we will be holding a memorial meeting
for Maryam
Please check our website for venue.

We will remember her.
We will also ask WHY?
It will also be a PROTEST and a call for an end to all the deaths and the violence and misery caused by the Israeli occupation of Palestine.

We would like to have a quiet and brief protest today.

These people will say some words:

A member of CADFA women's links, who is also a grandmother

A member of CADFA student links, because Maryam was killed protecting the students who lodged in the flat above her house

And a member of the Ayyad family
(a relative of Maryam)

Then we will have a minute's silence to remember Maryam.

Please come on Weds 29th Oct too.
