This November, Camden Abu Dis Friendship Association will be bringing over a group of Palestinian students from Al Quds University. The project will raise awareness of the human rights situation in Palestine with an emphasis on the plight of students. Palestinian and British students will work collaboratively to document student life through photography. JOIN THEM / MEET THEM

For more information on the project see www.camdenabudis.net/lookatourlives.html
