

Abu Dis prisoners

There are currently (Jan 2007) about 60 prisoners from Abu Dis in Israeli jails, of whom about a third are children. As in the rest of Palestine, the provisions of the Fourth Geneva Convention and the Convention on the Rights of the Child are frequently broken in relation to these prisoners. Some prisoners are held under "administrative detention" and have not had a trial. Many of the prisoners report ill-treatment. Their families have great problems in visiting them.

What CADFA is doing

Camden Abu Dis Friendship Association is working to make people aware of the issue of Palestinian prisoners and their human rights. We are putting the stories of prisoners on our website (as told by parents and ex-prisoners). See <http://www.camdenabudis.org/prisoners.html>

We are organising a conference in Camden about political prisoners. We encourage individuals and groups to adopt Abu Dis political prisoners.

Adopt a political prisoner

Would you like to offer support to a young person from Abu Dis who has been arrested by the Israeli military and taken to prison in Israel? If you agree with the aims of our organisation and are prepared to work within guidelines we issue, please contact us
