

VISIT PALESTINE WITH CADFA

“This was one of the best things I have done in my life”

“The visit was extremely well organised”

“I felt safe and well looked-after”

“I loved the people, and I was shocked to find out what life is really like for them”

(visitors on recent CADFA visits)

Our visits The feedback from the visits we arrange to Abu Dis and Palestine is excellent. Our visits focus on the human rights situation in the West Bank, and we tailor them effectively to the interests of the people that come. Because the visits bring back people who are informed and active, this has become an important part of our work. We prepare people properly, look after you carefully and provide expert support for you at all stages of the visit.

Cost Sometimes we manage to get subsidies for our visits, but usually visits of about a week cost about £390 plus air fares. That includes all accommodation and food and travel from the meeting-point onwards as well as guides, entrance fees etc. If there are not many people on the visit, it may cost us a little more as the exchange rate is moving against the pound.

Volunteering Shorter tours for people who are going to be volunteers cost less. There is more information about volunteering with CADFA on our website – or contact us.

SUMMER 2008:

Note: we have put in for funding to subsidise our summer youth visit but until/ unless that is confirmed, all visits will be full cost.

 Usually, the earlier you book tickets the cheaper the airfares so do contact us early!

- (1) General visit, late May – a week's tour.
- (2) Trade union visit, date to be confirmed (could overlap with (1)) – a week's tour.
- (3) Student visit / workcamp - end June to end July
- (4) Youth visit/ general visit this summer - end of July with the possibility of staying on to volunteer
- (5) Volunteering in longer stints (often 3 months) throughout next school year – We will organise induction tours before you start unless you have visited Palestine recently.
