Visit for Camden women to Palestine
in October- November 2009

We are inviting applications from women from Camden community centres or women's groups to join an exciting visit to Palestine of just over a week involving

- Tour of the West Bank
- Seeing how women there live
- Visiting women's centres and other organisations
- Cooking and making traditional handcrafts
- Joining Palestinian women in a story-telling workshop at the Al Quds University Abu Dis.

The visit will be subsidised. There will be lots of exciting preparatory activities including Arabic classes!

For women's groups and community groups in Camden:

Please note that this visit is specially for women who are part of Camden women's or community groups – Please see that your group is represented!

For Palestinian women's groups and Britain-Palestine twinning groups:

Please join us and help plan the activities of this visit, meet the women from Britain, join the workshops, give us your ideas.

Visit for Palestinian women to Britain in March 2010

We are inviting applications for places on a Palestinian women's tour of Britain around International Women's Day 2010. This will be an exciting visit to different places in Britain, which will allow British and Palestinian women to meet. It will include

- Tour of Britain and a chance to meet with twinning partners
- Visiting women's centres and other organisations
- Meeting with people from different cultures in Britain
- Celebrating International Women's Day together
- Practical workshops including health and fitness
- Joining British women in a story-telling workshop

The visit will be subsidised. There will be lots of exciting preparatory activities including English classes!

For Britain Palestine twinning groups

We hope that this tour will promote friendship and twinning links between Britain and Palestine, and have invited the Britain Palestine Twinning Network to sponsor the visit (not confirmed at time of going to press) We are inviting twinning groups to sponsor a delegate to be part of the tour.

For women's groups and twinning groups in Britain

Details of the programme are being prepared – would you like to help us to shape this visit?
