

PALESTINIANS PAY A VISIT

VISITORS from the Palestinian town of Abu Dis took a trip to the town hall last week under a scheme to forge closer links with Camden.

Arranged by the Camden Abu Dis Friendship Association, the visit was part of a week of events which included poetry readings, traditional food and music, classical concerts and a public meeting at Hampstead Friends' Meeting House.

The visitors are pictured with Councillor Nasim Ali. To find out more about the organisation or to help raise funds, email camdenabudis@btinternet.com. Picture by Nigel Sutton
