

Teachers prepare to explore Middle East

A GROUP of teachers from Camden are getting ready for a trip to war-torn Palestine.

The trip is being organised by the Camden Abu Dis Friendship Association in collaboration with the British Council and Camden Council.

The group of between seven to 10 teachers will spend a week in the town of Abu Dis during the October half term.

Participants will meet in order to arrange the final details of the trip at 5.30pm on Saturday at Somers Town community centre.
